

Educational Adventures encourages parents to watch the Danger Rangers with their children so the whole family can learn the Danger Rangers' "Safety Rules!"

Here's a few questions you can review with your family after watching "Mission 547" to make sure they are Danger Ranger Ready!

1. When you see a burning house or building what should you do?
2. When you ride your bike what safety gear should you always wear?
3. Can you name some common household items that look the same whether they are hot or not?
4. Do you know what to do in an emergency?
5. Can you name some common household items that could be dangerous choking hazards for young children?
6. What should you do if you are lost?

Learn more about children's safety and how you can make learning fun at www.DangerRangers.com

1. Call 911, do not go inside
2. Helmet, also knee and elbow pads and wrist guards
3. Coffee pot, curling iron, stove
4. Call 911, make sure you know your name, address, and phone number
5. Balloons, coins, small toys
6. Find an adult in charge such as someone working behind a cash register or someone in uniform such as a police officer. You can also look for a mom with children of her own. Tell them you are lost and you need help.